

Immersive Audio Made Simple

Nothing breaks the flow of tabletop gaming like a clunky audio set-up. Storytelling should feel effortless, not distracted by tech. Pocket Bard® keeps you present, confident, and ready for the moments that matter most.

Nov 2025 Edition

MUSIC

Pocket Bard's composers have thoughtfully crafted unique musical themes that weave a tapestry through our entire library, making every scene feel connected and cohesive. Give your players a unique and magical experience with a tool that elevates the soundtrack of your story!

Seamlessly transition between Explore and Combat, and from scene to scene! No harsh breaks in the immersion or action!

Use the Intensity Slider to arrange the dynamics of the music on the fly!

Our FREE Tavern scene is filled with 11 songs and offers a unique first-of-its-kind experience with vocals that can be toggled on and off!

AMBIENCE

Location Ambience is your always-ready ambient bed that's scene specific. From Forest sounds to the bustling City, it automatically adapts with your story effortlessly!

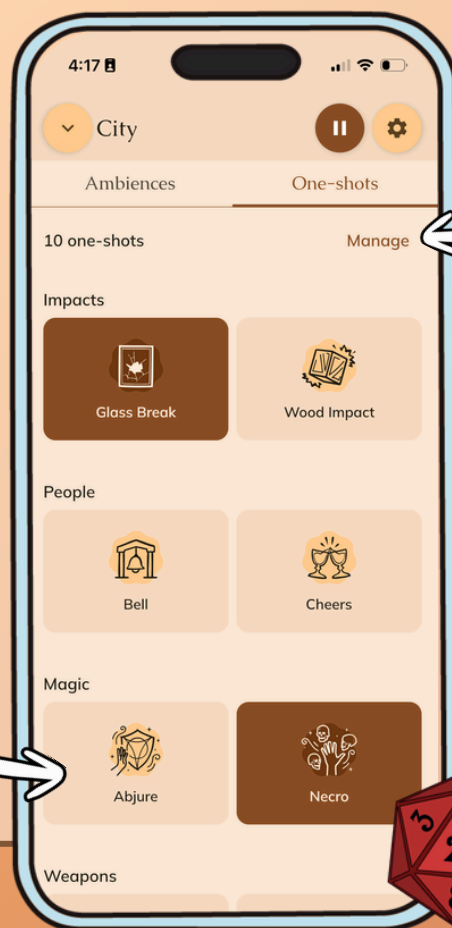

If your party decides to enter a building, change the Ambience Variation to match their exact location setting!

Layer in multiple ambiances to build your world, adjusting the Ambience Levels to suit your needs!

ONE-SHOT SFX

Want to add impact to your story?
Use One-Shot SFX like spells, weapon hits, monster sounds, and more!

Configure each scene with the One-Shots and Ambiences you'll need for your session!

OUR STORY

If you're looking for more context into the heart of Pocket Bard this page is your peek behind the screen into the dedicated team and ethos of who we are, what we value, and why we care so much about sound at the table.

How it started

In the heat of a dragon-scorched battle, our party braced for the killing blow, then the DM paused to hunt for the right playlist, and the spell broke. That moment happened to Chase, one of our founders, and it sparked a simple idea: sound should amplify the magic, not interrupt it. He teamed up with Alex, a bard at heart, and Jason, a tech wizard, to forge Pocket Bard, an intuitive audio companion that feels like an extension of your imagination.

Who we are now

We've grown from three founders to a party of ten filled with musicians, game masters, storytellers, and artists. Collaboration has shaped Pocket Bard into what it is today, and this team is in it for the long haul.

What we believe

Music and audio enriches life in deeper, more meaningful ways. Our passion is giving people the time and tools to focus on what they value most. We build simple technology that elevates immersion, whether grounded in reality or venturing through fantasy. Memories and moments at the gaming table are priceless; people connecting with their playful spirit and with each other. Our quest is to help people be able to focus on the moments that matter most.
